

BROADMEAD
Care Society

Excellence in Care for Veterans and Seniors

The Lodge at Broadmead
Falls and Injury Prevention Program - Clinical Practice Guidelines
Table of Contents

Section 1	Introduction	Page
•	Program Philosophy	4
•	Beliefs, Assumptions and Underlying Principles	4
•	Purpose of the Guidelines	4
Section 2	Falls and Injury Prevention Program Decision Tree	5
Section 3	Falls and Injury Prevention Practice Guidelines
•	Preadmission falls risk screen	6
•	Assessment of falls risk on admission	6
•	Development of a falls and injury prevention plan	7
•	List of potential fall and injury prevention interventions	7 - 8
•	Monitoring falls risk and occurrence of falls	8 - 9
•	What to do following a fall	9
•	Guidelines for completing a musculoskeletal assessment after a fall	10 – 11
•	Reassessment of the resident following a fall	11
Section 4	Team Roles
•	Role of the Director of Care	12
•	Role of the Lodge Nurse	12 - 13
•	Role of the Health Care Worker	13 - 14
•	Role of the Care Coordinator	14
•	Role of the Occupational Therapist	14 - 16
•	Role of the Physiotherapist	16 - 18
•	Role of the Clinical Resource Nurse	18 - 19
•	Role of the Clinical Nurse Specialist	19
•	Role of the Foot Care Nurse	19
•	Role of the Social Worker	20
•	Role of the Dietitian	20 - 21
•	Role of the Physician	21
Section 5	Forms
•	Admission Falls Risk Assessment Form	22
	Guidelines for completing the form
•	Falls Recording Form	22
	Guidelines for completing the form

Section 6	Falls and Injury Data
•	Data collection	23
•	Data Input and Distribution	23
•	Data Analysis and Follow-up	23
•	Monthly Falls Rates Measured	24
Section 7	References	25
Section 8	Appendices	26